

Case Title: Ravi Kumar vs Suresh Kumar

Case Summary:

Mr. Ravi Kumar alleges that his brother Mr. Suresh Kumar has illegally occupied a portion of ancestral property located in Coimbatore.

The property was jointly inherited by both parties after the death of their father in 2018.

According to the plaintiff, the defendant constructed a boundary wall and restricted access to part of the land without mutual agreement.

The defendant claims that the property was orally divided between the brothers in 2019.

Evidence Submitted:

- Property title documents
- Revenue records
- Photographs of boundary construction

Legal Questions:

Whether the defendant's possession amounts to illegal occupation or lawful division of property.

Relevant Laws:

Indian Penal Code Section 441 – Criminal trespass.

Indian Penal Code Section 447 – Punishment for criminal trespass.

Indian Succession Act provisions related to inheritance.
